PHILIP W. BARTENETTI

Phil Bartenetti is an experienced trial lawyer who specializes in the trial of business disputes. He has tried over twenty cases to jury verdicts, several court trials and represented individual and corporate clients in numerous arbitrations and mediations. Phil has been recognized as a Super Lawyer in the area of commercial litigation.

Phil has handled cases from corporate contract disputes, corporate dissolutions, trust litigation and elder abuse.

Phil believes the lawyer's role as counselor to be extremely important. He involves the client in the decision making process from defining goals, determining the most cost effective approach to the selection of a forum mediation, arbitration or court.
